

Documenting patient delivered partner therapy (PDPT)

The autofill (Best Practice) or management/comment (Medical Director) shortcut function in your medical practice software can be used to quickly insert information about chlamydia management and patient delivered partner therapy into patient notes during a consult.

You can tailor the specific text to your own needs. Some suggestions for patient delivered partner therapy autofill text are provided below.

NAME OF SHORTCUT

PDPT

SUGGESTED AUTOFILL TEXT

Patient delivered partner therapy offered: Y/N

Patient delivered partner therapy accepted: Y/N

If accepted:

Number of partners patient delivered partner therapy used to treat: [insert number]

Azithromycin 1g orally prescription provided to index for treatment of: [insert partner/s name and other relevant contact details or medical history provided by index as per jurisdictional requirements]

Prescription provided via: [generated from EMR/handwritten/letter template] Information about patient delivered partner therapy has been provided to the patient to give to their partner with the script.

If relevant:

[Partner name] is a patient at this clinic